A black and white comic panel set in a library. In the background, there are several tall bookshelves filled with books. In the foreground, a boy with curly hair is sitting on the floor, holding a large open book and looking surprised. To his right, a girl with pigtails is also sitting on the floor, looking at a book with a bored expression. Standing behind them is a woman with long dark hair, wearing a long dress, looking down at the boy. A large speech bubble from the woman contains the text.
